Glen,

For purposes of allowing the development application to proceed, and with the understanding that we have made representation to the developers consistent with Scott Anderson's email below that there are issues yet to be evaluated and resolved during the review phase, I am providing consent relative to the City's property interest.

Subject: RE: K&A application

Here's what I would be willing to send:

Bloomington Public Works is aware that the application by Knox and American I LLC (Case File 2018-255) is proposing to make physical changes to and replat City-owned property at 2000 W. 82nd Street. None of the physical changes, associated implications of the changes, nor proposed plat have been approved or discussed in appropriate detail to the satisfaction of the Public Works Department to ensure the integrity of the public's infrastructure.

Any review of this application must consider the inadequacies of the submittals to date and in no way guarantees that the improvements shown on City-owned property (or within City easements) or the re-plat would be approved.
