RE: Proposed Text Amendment to the Bloomington Comprehensive Plan

DATE: November 3, 2022

APPLICANT: City of Bloomington

CASE FILE: #PL2022-221

This letter is to notify you of a proposed Comprehensive Plan Amendment in the City of Bloomington. Pursuant to requirements of the Metropolitan Council, this letter serves as official notification that the proposed Comprehensive Plan amendment has been submitted to your agency for comment and review. The City of Bloomington is required to notify adjacent governmental units and school districts of proposed Comprehensive Plan amendments prior to submitting them for review by the Metropolitan Council.

The City of Bloomington proposes a Comprehensive Plan text amendment to adjust the density ranges of the residential land use categories. The density ranges associated with the existing residential land use categories are as follows:

Existing Residential Land Use Categories

- Low Density Residential (LDR): 0-5 units per acre
- Medium Density Residential (MDR): 5-10 units per acre
- High Density Residential (HDR): 10-150 units per acre

The City of Bloomington proposes to adjust the density ranges of the residential land use categories as follows:

Proposed Residential Land Use Categories

- Low Density Residential (LDR): 0-12 units per acre
- Medium Density Residential (MDR): 5-15 units per acre
- High Density Residential (HDR): 10-150 units per acre

In addition to these changes, the text amendment would clarify the types of land uses allowed within the Low Density Residential, Medium Density Residential, and Industrial land use categories.

The proposed Comprehensive Plan text amendment is related to multiple ongoing updates to the Bloomington Zoning Code pertaining to single-family residential and two-family residential zoning standards. More information about these ongoing updates to the Bloomington Zoning Code can be found at the following link:

<https://letstalk.bloomingtonmn.gov/single-and-two-family-development-standards-update>

In addition to the updates on the single and two-family residential zoning standards, the City is working on developing a transitional industrial zoning district, a strategic priority identified in the Lyndale Avenue Suburban Retrofit Plan. Some of the uses proposed within the transitional industrial district conflict with the City's existing Industrial land use category as currently written. As such, the City is proposing modest changes to the description of the Industrial land use category. More information about the Lyndale Avenue Suburban Retrofit Plan and transitional industrial zoning district are found at the following links:

Lyndale Ave Retrofit Plan: <https://www.bloomingtonmn.gov/plan/lyndale-avenue-retrofit>

Transitional Industrial Zoning District Project: <https://letstalk.bloomingtonmn.gov/transitional-industrial-zoning-district>

If you would like additional information, please contact me at (952) 563-8925 or nmjohnson@bloomingtonmn.gov. Please return any written comments you may have at your earliest convenience. If your agency has no comment, please fill out the enclosed form and return it by mail at the address below or email an electronic copy to me at the email address above.

Subject: Affected Jurisdiction Review - Bloomington Comprehensive Plan Text Amendment

Good afternoon Representatives of Affected Jurisdictions,

The City of Bloomington is processing a Comprehensive Plan Text Amendment request to modify the descriptions of the City's residential and industrial land use categories, as well as adjust the density ranges of the residential land use categories. The Text Amendment is related to multiple projects updating the City's Zoning Code, which are further described in the attached letter.

The application is scheduled to be heard at public hearings at the City of Bloomington Planning Commission on December 8, 2022 and at City Council on January 9, 2023 (anticipated date). Per the established review procedures established by the Metropolitan Council, the City of Bloomington is distributing a notice to affected jurisdictions regarding the request. Attached you will find the formal affected jurisdiction review letter. A hard copy will also be mailed to your attention.

If you have review comments, please respond no later than January 3, 2023. You also can email me a "no comment" form (see page 3 of attached letter) if you do not have comments but choose to respond before the 60-day deadline.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Nick,

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on the proposed zoning changes. The only RPBCWD comment of note is that our design and performance standards will still have to be met. As such, with the increased density proposed for LDR and MDR, there will likely be an increase in development costs to meet the performance standards set forth in Rule J – Stormwater Management.

Again, on behalf of RPBCWD, we appreciate your communication and the opportunity to comment.

Kind regards,
 Terry

Ann,

Thanks for the question.

No, I do not anticipate this amendment to impact park and recreation properties or amenities, including Three River Park District assets, in any way. These amendment are strictly focused to our residential and industrial land use categories. The City has a separate "Public" land use category that is applicable to all parks. No changes are proposed to the Public category.

Let me know if I can clarify anything else for you.

Thanks,

Hi Nick,

Does this Comp Plan amendment directly effect any Three Rivers Park District property and/or recreational amenities (i.e. Nine Mile Regional Trail, Nokomis to MN River Regional Trail, or Hyland or other)?

Thanks!

Subject: Affected Jurisdiction Review - Bloomington Comprehensive Plan Text Amendment

Good afternoon Representatives of Affected Jurisdictions,

The City of Bloomington is processing a Comprehensive Plan Text Amendment request to modify the descriptions of the City's residential and industrial land use categories, as well as adjust the density ranges of the residential land use categories. The Text Amendment is related to multiple projects updating the City's Zoning Code, which are further described in the attached letter.

The application is scheduled to be heard at public hearings at the City of Bloomington Planning Commission on December 8, 2022 and at City Council on January 9, 2023 (anticipated date). Per the established review procedures established by the Metropolitan Council, the City of Bloomington is distributing a notice to affected jurisdictions regarding the request. Attached you will find the formal affected jurisdiction review letter. A hard copy will also be mailed to your attention.

If you have review comments, please respond no later than January 3, 2023. You also can email me a "no comment" form (see page 3 of attached letter) if you do not have comments but choose to respond before the 60-day deadline.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Take care,
