

Description of Work:

The work that is to be completed under this permit includes a complete renovation of the office space that was previously demoed under a different permit. This construction includes new partition walls, ACT ceilings, doors, fixtures, and flooring.